George Okes

George Okes, 66, 812 S. Main St., Brownstown, died at 5 p.m. Sunday, May 15, at the Jackson County Hospital following a lengthy illness.

An Army veteran of World War II, he was a retired electrician. Mr. Okes was a member of the Brownstown Baptist Church, Brownstown American Legion, Masonic Lodge 13 F&AM, and the Order of Eastern Star Chapter 264.

He was born April 18, 1922, in Crawford County to the late Benjamin and Gertrude Stratton Okes. On Sept. 28, 1947, he married Reva V. Sage in Brownstown, and she survives.

Other survivors include three brothers: Benjamin Okes Jr., Indianapolis; and Frank Okes and Leo Okes, both of Booneville.

Funeral services were held Wednesday, May 18, at the Winklepleck-Weesner Funeral Home, Brownstown, with the Rev. Gary Morning officiating. Burial was in Fairview Cemetery, Brownstown.

Memorials may be designated to the Cancer Fund.
