Stanley Owen

Stanley Zollman Owen, 79, of Brownstown died Wednesday evening, Nov. 13, at Jackson County Hospital after a 2-day illness.

Born April 21, 1895, in Medora, he was the son of the late George and Elizabeth Zollman Owen.

On June 5, 1920, he married the former Frances Robertson in Louisville, Ky., and she survives.

A veteran of World War I, he was a graduate of Purdue University and served as director of the Jackson County Welfare Department for 28 years before retiring in 1969. He also served as president of the Indiana Welfare Association.

He was vice-president of the board of directors of the Peoples Bank, Brownstown, and several years ago he served on the Town Board of Brownstown.

He belonged to the Brownstown Presbyterian Church and was a member of Camp Jackson Post 112, American Legion, which he once served as commander. He was also a 50-year-member of Washington Lodge 13, Free and Accepted Masons.

Other survivors are one nephew: Don Owen, Sheridan; and 2 great-nephews. One brother, Hubert Owen, preceded him in death.

Services were held Saturday afternoon, Nov. 16, from the Spurgeon Funeral Home, Brownstown, with the Rev. Robert Reid, pastor of the Brownstown United Presbyterian Church officiating. Burial was in Fairview Cemetery, Brownstown.
