Ex-B'town Man Dies Suddenly

Gerald "Bud" Owens, 55, of Indianapolis, a native of Brownstown, died suddenly at 8:30 p. m. Wednesday in Indianapolis after suffering an apparent heart attack while at work as a taxi driver. He had left his cab and entered a nearby building when he collapsed.

A veteran of World War II, he was a member of the Masonic Lodge and the American Legion.

Born March 3, 1912, in Brownstown, he was the son of the late Harvey and Maud Boley Owens. Reared in the Brownstown area, he lived for a while in Seymour before moving to Indianapolis.

Survivors include a son, Jerry Owens, and a daughter, Miss Elizabeth Owens, both of Indianapolis; two sisters, Mrs. Oscar Pilman, of Indianapolis, and Mrs. Melvin Silence, of Brownstown; two nieces, Mrs. Katherine Fosbrink and Miss Linda Silence, both of Brownstown; and six nephews, Kenneth and Jim Owens, of Seymour, and Glenn Jr., and Dean Owens and Larry and Lester Silence, all of Brownstown.

Funeral services will be conducted at 10 a. m. Saturday from the N. S. Chance Funeral Home in Indianapolis, after which the body will be brought to the Nazarene Church in Brownstown where services will be conducted at 2 p. m., with the Rev. Floyd N. Farnsley, pastor, officiating. Burial in Fairview Cemetery there.

Friends may call at the funeral home in Indianapolis after 7 p. m. tonight and on Saturday at the Brownstown Church from noon until time for the service.
