Paul Perry

Paul Jennings Perry, 58, Brownstown, died suddenly Saturday evening, March 31, at his home.

A retired truck driver and laborer, he was a veteran of World War II.

Born in Washington County on Feb. 15, 1915, he was the son of the late Claude and Binnie Silence Perry. On Feb. 14, 1932, he married Edna Marie Bloom, who died in 1952.

Surviving are one son: Harold Perry, Vallonia; one daughter: Mrs. Jerome Schlensker, Columbus; 3 brothers: Stanley Perry, Seymour; Joseph Perry, Seymour Rt. 5; and Cecil Perry, Brownstown; one half-brother: Clifford Perry, Indianapolis; one sister: Mrs. Homer Williams, Evansville; and 6 grandchildren, a brother and sister preceded him in death.

Services were held Tuesday, April 3, from the Spurgeon Funeral Home, with the Rev. Robert E. Reid of the Brownstown Presbyterian Church officiating. Burial was in Fairview Cemetery.
