Brownstown Boy Called By Death

Izair Benjamin Persinger, age sixteen, a Sophomore in the Brownstown High School and son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Persinger, died at the home in Brownstown at 2 o'clock Tuesday afternoon. Death followed an illness of four days with pneumonia.

Funeral services will be conducted at 2 o'clock Thursday afternoon from the Brownstown Christian Church with the Rev. William Richmond, pastor, in charge. Burial in Fairview Cemetery.

The youth, known as "Benny," was born on October 8, 1921, in Brownstown, the son of Thomas and Nora Gaiter Persinger, both of whom survive. He was a popular student at the Brownstown High School and has many friends who mourn his death.

Besides the parents, he is survived by two brothers, George Persinger and Thomas Persinger, Jr., and two sisters, Betty Persinger and Joann Persinger, all of Brownstown.
