Oscar Pilman

Oscar Pilman, 73, Indianapolis, died unexpectedly Sunday, May 10, in Indianapolis.

Funeral services were scheduled at 10:30 a.m. today, Wednesday, May 13, at Brownstown Church of the Nazarene with the Rev. J.E. Childress of Indianapolis and the Rev. Darrell Wineinger of Brownstown officiating. Burial will be in Fairview Cemetery.

Persons may call between 9:30 and 10:30 a.m. today at the church.

The son of the late John H. and Effie McKain Pilman was born in Jackson County in January 1908. The former Brownstown resident moved to Indianapolis about 25 years ago.

He was a retired employee of Adams Grader Factory in Indianapolis and was a member of Westbrook Church of the Nazarene in Indianapolis.

His wife, the former Lola Owens, whom he married in Cincinnati in August 1931, survives.

Other survivors include two daughters, Sue Foster of Indianapolis and Jo Combs of Noblesville; three brothers, Bill Pilman of Rising Sun, Delbert Pilman of Brownstown Rt. 1 and John Pilman of Mitchell; three sisters, Mrs. Frank Ross of Greencastle, Mrs. Otis Richards of Scottsburg, and Mrs. Arthur Strouse of Brownstown; and four grandchildren.

Local arrangements were made through Winklepleck-Weesner Funeral Home, Brownstown.
