Daniel S. Poore, 79, Succumbs at Medora

Daniel S. Poore, age seventy-nine, of Medora, retired gardener, died early Thursday morning at his home after being stricken suddenly in his garden Wednesday.

Mr. Poore, a life-long resident of Jackson county, had been in poor health for a number of years, but his sudden death came as a shock to his many friends throughout the county, who mourn his death. He was affiliated with the United Brethren Church at Freetown.

He was born April 8, 1866, near Freetown, the son of Samuel and Julia Winegar Poore, deceased. He was married January 15, 1889, in Jackson county to Lucy Taylor, who survives.

Besides the widow, he is survived by seven children: Harley Poore, of Medora; Miss Clara Poore, and Mrs. Jack Barber, both of Indianapolis; Mrs. K. C. Adams, of Lansing, Mich.; Paul Poor, of Sage, Calif. and Ralph and Fred Poore, both at home.

Seven grandchildren also survive. Of these, two grandsons, Sgt. Kelso Poore and Lt. Max Poore, brothers, lost their lives in action in the European war.

Funeral services will be conducted at 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon from the home with the Rev. A. W. Haines, of New Albany, in charge. Burial in Fairview Cemetery in Brownstown.

Friends may call at the home at anytime.
