Frank Praggy Drops Dead

Here This Morning Watching
Selectees Preparing To Leave
For Camp.

Frank Praggy, age 45, of Brownstown, while watching the group of Selectees preparing to leave Brownstown this morning, shortly before eight o'clock, suffered a heart attack and expired a few minutes later. He had been in poor health for the past year or more. Standing at the northeast corner of Main and Walnut he had been talking to others about the Selectees and then walked in front of Robertson's Barber Shop on Walnut street when he suffered the attack and fell to the pavement.

Funeral services will be conducted at the Wallace Funeral Home Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock with the Rev. Father McSweeney, pastor of the Catholic church in charge. Burial in Fairview cemetery.

He was the son of the late Garry and Lula Boley Praggy and was born in Brownstown December 31, 1895. He was graduated from the Brownstown high school in 1914 and attended Indiana university and Cincinnati university. For four years he taught in a township school near Mt. Healthy, Ohio. He was a member of Lady of Providence Catholic church.

On November 17, 1917, he was married at Mt. Healthy, Ohio, to Margaret Werling. They moved back to Brownstown seven years ago where he followed the occupation of a farmer.

Survivors, besides the widow are two children, Elma and Robert, at home, and two sisters, Mrs. Laura Shaw and Mrs. Mary Hauer, both of Mr. Healthy, Ohio.

Friends may call at the Funeral Home after 9 o'clock Thursday morning.
