George Prather

The funeral of George Riley Prather, 62, was today in the Robert W. Stirling Funeral Home with burial at Brownstown.

Mr. Prather suffered a heat stroke and heart attack Wednesday at his home, 1146 Laurel. He was one of the first to enter World War I and was a master mechanic. He remained with the Army of Occupation six months after the war.

Born at Brownstown, he was a member of Wayne American Legion Post.

Survivors include two sisters, Mrs. Faith Lahrman and Mrs. Berniece Robertson, and two brothers, Thomas W. and Donald S. Prather.
