Mrs. Rebber Dies —Rites Thursday

Mrs. Emma Rebber, age seventy-three, living on Crothersville R1, four miles west of Crothersville, died at the home Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock. She had been ill about five days.

She was born January 23, 1866, the daughter of the late William and Christine Schwein Heller. She was married on December 9, 1908, to Henry J. Rebber, who survives.

In addition to the husband, a sister, Miss Christina Heller, survives.

Mrs. Rebber was a highly respected woman and was a faithful member of the Dudleytown Lutheran Church.

Funeral services will be conducted Thursday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock from the home, and at 2 o'clock from the Dudleytown Lutheran Church, in charge of the Rev. George Steinkamp. Burial at Brownstown.
