Comment:

Kenneth Lee "Rocky" Reed, 67, of Brownstown, died at 1:35 p.m. Monday, April 22, at Memorial Hospital in Seymour. He had been ill several years.

He was affiliated with Crothersville Pentecostal Church, and he was a U.S. Army veteran of the Korean Conflict. He was a retired carpenter.

He was born June 28, 1934, at Indianapolis, a son of the late Leo Reed and Verna Spears and stepfather Max Spears who survives in Indianapolis. He lived all his life in Jackson and Washington counties. He was married Aug. 20, 195, at Madison, to the former Margaret Stucker, and she survives.

Also surviving are four children, Michael Reed of Brownstown, Teressa Asher of Freetown, Angie Brown of Seymour, and Donald Day of Terre Haute; three brothers, Dwayne Spears of Crawfordsville, Larry Robbins of Seymour, and Lavon Robbins; three sisters, June Kindred of Florida, Connie Durley of Millport, and Roslee Hutchinson of Leesville; and 10 grandchildren, Mike Reed Jr., Josh Reed, April Reed, Sandra Asher, Heather Asher, Kim Asher, Kevin Moore, Rebecca Moore, Ashley Brown, and Amanda Brown; and two great-grandchildren, Treyton Michael Brown and Peyton Matthew Moore.

He was preceded in death by his father and mother.

Funeral services will be conducted at 1 p.m. today, Thursday, at Johnson Funeral Home in Vallonia with Rev. Larry Robbins officiating. Burial will be at Fairview Cemetery in Brownstown with full military graveside services.

Friends may call from 11 a.m. until service time today at the funeral home.

Memorials may be given to the Reed family.
