Charles J. Reedy, 64, Succumbs at Columbus

Charles J. Reedy, 64, a native of Brownstown, where he had resided until moving to Columbus 37 years ago, died Sunday night at his home, 118 Hege street, East Columbus. He had been ill for seven years and bed-fast six months.

Born August 9, 1886, at Brownstown, Mr. Reedy was the son of the late Noah and Hettie Reedy. A carpenter for years, he became a grocer when ill health forced him to give up his trade and had operated a grocery store in East Columbus for about 12 years. He was a member of the Brownstown Christian Church and was well known there, leaving many friends who join with relatives and friends in the Columbus area in mourning his passing.

Mr. Reedy was married on March 30, 1911, to Ida Bell, who survives. A foster-daughter, Mrs. Alta Grimes, who has made her home with Mr. and Mrs. Reedy for nearly 20 years, also survives, along with several cousins.

Funeral services will be conducted at 1:30 o'clock Wednesday afternoon from the Flanigan, Reed and Inlow Funeral Home, Columbus, with the Rev. Gilbert Curry in charge. Burial in Fairview Cemetery, Brownstown.
