REICH FUNERAL IS HELD
Services At Brownstown For Former Seymour Woman.

Mrs. George Reich whose death at her home in Brownstown Tuesday was the result of a lingering attack of pneumonia was buried in the Brownstown cemetery yesterday afternoon. The funeral services were held at the home of the deceased, in charge of the Rev. Roy E. Mueller, pastor of the Presbyterian church at Brownstown, of which Mrs. Reich was a member.

The Reich family have been shadowed by death for the past six years, four members having died during that time. Two of the four children were first called and they were followed by the father and husband of the family. Now the death of the mother is grieved by the two remaining children: a daughter, Alma who has made her home with her mother, and a son, Charles, who lives in Louisville, Ky.

Mrs. Reich formerly lived in Seymour but for the past six years the family has made its home at Brownstown. Mrs. Reich leaves a host of friends at both places because of her splendid character and boundless friendliness.
