Ezekiel Reynolds, Local Nonagenarian, Dies—Rites Tuesday

Funeral rites were held Tuesday afternoon from the Johnson Funeral Home, Vallonia, with burial in Brownstown's Fairview Cemetery, for 90-year-old Ezekiel Reynolds, Brownstown R1.

Ill four weeks, Mr. Reynolds died Saturday night in the Jackson county hospital.

A native of Washington county, he was born February 5, 1875, a son of the late John and Louisa Reynolds. His wife, the former Miss Louitte Wheeler, is deceased.

Mr. Reynolds had lived in Jackson county the past twenty years.

For many years he was employed by the Kieffer Paper Mill and in later years, as recently as only a few weeks ago he collected paper from business houses in Brownstown and sold it to the Paper Mill firm.

Despite his advanced years he was very self-reliant and industrious which won him the admiration of everyone who knew him.

Surviving are four sons. Howard and Talmadge Reynolds are residents of Brownstown; Curtis Reynolds lives at Columbus, and David Reynolds, on Vallonia R1. He also leaves two daughters, Mrs. Mary Harris, Vallonia R1, and Miss Lela Maxine Reynolds; two sisters, Mrs. Ella Booker, New Albany and Mrs. Mollie Hankins, Seymour; 19 grandchildren and 31 great-grandchildren.

Two sons and a daughter are deceased.
