Family Of Ministers

Four Of Seven Brothers And One
Son Took Up Ministerial
Work.

Rev. Frank Reynolds, aged almost 81 years, died at his home in Brownstown Tuesday morning following a lingering illness of cancer.

Rev. Reynolds comes from a family of ministers, being one of four brothers who took up ministerial work, the other three being Rev. Warren W. Reynolds and Rev. T. J. Reynolds, both deceased, and Rev. O. B. Reynolds of Brownstown township, who survives. He also has one son in the ministry, the Rev. Meade H. Reynolds, of Indianapolis.

Other children surviving him are: Cecil J. Reynolds, Mrs. Blanche Gullmiller and Ray L. Reynolds, all of Indianapolis; Mrs. Clarence Gossman, Mrs. Will Schwein and George Reynolds, all of Brownstown.

Two children Virgil and Herschel, preceded him to the grave. He also leaves sixteen grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

Mrs. Jonas Peters of Vallonia was taken into the Reynolds home when just a child and was raised as their own daughter. She and her family of six children and three grandchildren mourn for him as their own father and grandfather.

Funeral services will be held at the M. E. church in Brownstown Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock by the Rev. T. J. Hart. Burial in Fairview cemetery.
