Mrs. Rinehart Dies, Rites Set Tuesday

Mrs. Edith Rinehart, 75, of Freetown, died at 7:05 p. m. Saturday at her home after an illness of several years.

Funeral services will be conducted at 1 p. m. Tuesday from the Winklepleck-Weesner Funeral Home, Brownstown, with William Miller, minister of the Freetown Church of Christ, officiating. Burial in Fairview Cemetery, Brownstown.

Friends may call at the Winklepleck-Weesner Funeral Home at any time.

She was a member of the Freetown Church of Christ.

A lifelong resident of the county, Mrs. Rinehart was born Sept. 26, 1894, in Freetown, the daughter of the late George and Margaret McKain Waggoner.

On Oct. 16, 1916, in Columbus, she married Ben C. Rinehart, who survives.

In addition to the husband, she is survived by two children, Mrs. Charles (Margaret) Garloch, of Worthington, Ohio, and Major Ben. J. Rinehart, of Sacramento, Calif.; and six grandchildren.

One brother preceded her in death.
