Comment:

Mrs. Alice Robertson, daughter of Abraham and Elizabeth Martin, was born near Houston, Jackson county, Ind., November 9, 1869, and died March 12, 1926, aged 56 years, 4 months and 3 days. She was the only daughter of a family of six children. Her early days were spent in the vicinity of her birth. When about twelve years of age she went with her mother to Columbus. After living two years in that city she then went to the home of an aunt in Brownstown.

On March 9, 1892, she was married to Dunham Robertson. After their marriage they made their home in Jackson county until February, 1913, when they moved to Johnson county. Then, in August, 1913, they came to Grassy Fork Fisheries, where Mr. Robertson has been a faithful employee. About three years ago, owing to the failing health of Mrs. Robertson, the family moved to Martinsville, where she died. Mrs. Robertson was the mother of three children, two boys and one girl. One of the boys, Ernest, died in infancy. The other boy, Ezra, when between twelve and thirteen years of age, lost his life by drowning, the mother witnessing the tragedy, but unable to give assistance.

Mrs. Robertson, at the time of her death, was a member of the Christian church. When about twelve years of age she united with the Baptist church at Columbus. Later, when about nineteen years of age, she placed her membership with the Brownstown Christian church.

Deceased was a woman of excellent habits. She was industrious and systematic. She was a woman of sympathetic disposition. She found no greater joy than that which was afforded by doing something for others. In fact, at the time of her death, she was engaged in doing something for others.

She is survived by the husband; one daughter, Mrs. Emerson Laughner, of Martinsville; three brothers, George Martin, of Martinsville, J. A. Martin of Brownstown, John T. Martin of Peoria, Ill., and one-half brother, Charles Wade, of Indianapolis.
