Chas. Robertson Called By Death

Well Known Brownstown Man
Passes Away at Indianapolis
Hospital—Funeral Friday.

Charles Robertson, prominent Brownstown resident, passed away at the Methodist Hospital at Indianapolis at 8 o'clock Tuesday night. Death was due to heart disease which developed following an operation which he underwent after being taken to Indianapolis Thanksgiving Day.

Mr. Robertson, a retired resident of the county seat, was a Mason, had been president of the Brownstown Loan and Trust Company, was postmaster for a time and was affiliated with the Methodist Church. He was one of the most highly respected and widely known residents of Brownstown.

Funeral services will be conducted Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the home in Brownstown followed by burial in Fairview Cemetery.

He is survived by the widow, Mrs. Cora Robertson. Two sons, Claude, living at home, and Orville, of Indianapolis, and a daughter, Mrs. Robert Gibson, of Vincennes, also survive.
