Death Follows Paralytic Stroke

Mrs. Cora Robertson Expires
Sunday Afternoon...Other
Deaths Past Week.

Robertson—Mrs. Cora M. Robertson, age 68, died at her home in Brownstown Sunday afternoon at 2:15 o'clock. She suffered a stroke of paralysis several years ago from which she never fully recovered.

Funeral services were conducted at the residence Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock with the Rev. E. A. Dawson, pastor of the Methodist church, in charge. Burial in Fairview cemetery.

Mrs. Robertson was a native of Jackson county. She was born at Tampico November 12, 1868, the daughter of Hutchinson and Catherine Trueblood Sturgeon, both deceased. She was married at Tampico December 21, 1888, to Charles F. Robertson of Brownstown. After their marriage they went to housekeeping at Shieldstown, where Mr. Robertson conducted a general store for several years. Later he engaged in farming for a few years and then they moved to Brownstown. Mr. Robertson died December 11, 1934.

Mrs. Robertson was a member of the Methodist church. She was a most estimable woman and leaves a host of friends to mourn her death.

She is survived by three children, Orville Robertson, of Indianapolis; Claude Robertson, at home; Mrs. Lillian Gibson, of Vincennes; one brother, John V. Sturgeon, of Indianapolis, and two grandsons, Charles Ford and Billy Joe Robertson, both of Indianapolis.
