Mrs. Ethel Robertson Dies Unexpectedly

Shortly after suffering a heart attack, Mrs. Ethel Robertson, 63, well known resident of Gibson township, in Washington county, died Monday afternoon at her home. Although Mrs. Robertson had not been well for several years, she had not been seriously ill, and her sudden and unexpected death came as a severe shock to her many friends and relatives.

Born in Jackson county near Vallonia, on June 18, 1886, Mrs. Robertson was the daughter of the late Peter and Mary Elizabeth Heller Garis. She moved from this county to Washington county 39 years ago.

In 1908 Mrs. Robertson was married at Fowler to John C. Robertson, who survives. Mr. Robertson, a retired school teacher, has taught in many schools in this area.

Active in the Mt. Eden Christian Church, of which she was a member, Mrs. Robertson was also a member of the Ladies' Aid of the church and of the American Legion Auxiliary at Little York.

Survivors include, in addition to the husband, four children, Miss Opal Robertson and Glenn Robertson, both of Indianapolis, Roy Robertson, of Salem, and Donald Robertson, a student at Purdue University; and one sister, Mrs. Ralph McGill, of this city.

Funeral services will be conducted at 2 o'clock Wednesday afternoon from the Mt. Eden Christian Church, with the Rev. Esten Martin in charge. Burial in Fairview Cemetery, Brownstown.
