Graveside services for Harry R. Robertson, 81, formerly of Brownstown, will be at 1 p.m. today, Wednesday, March 31, at Fairview Cemetery in Brownstown.

Robertson, who lived in Oak Park Apartments in Indianapolis after retiring 20 years ago, died at 8:30 p.m. Sunday, March 28, at St. Frances Hospital in Beech Grove. He had been ill for two years.

Funeral will be at 10:30 a.m. today at Wilson-St. Pierre Funeral Home in Greenwood.

Robertson was graduated from Brownstown High School in 1919 and moved to Indianapolis where he became associated with the Bruce Dobson Insurance Company.

He moved to the company's central offices in Kansas City, Mo., was transferred to Hollywood as district manager of the company's California, Arizona and New Mexico operations and was transferred to New York to oversee operations in the New England states.

He moved back to Indianapolis 20 years ago after his retirement.

Born Jan. 6, 1901, in Brownstown, he was a son of the late Robert Livingston and Elizabeth Cash Robertson.

Robertson was married to Madge Frey at Kansas City, Mo., and she died on May 11, 1970. He then married Hazel Smith on Dec. 6, 1975, in Indianapolis, and she survives.

Also surviving are four nieces, Ruth Brodhecker of Brownstown Rt. 2, Janet Hasselbring of Lafayette, Mildred Gardner of San Antonio, Texas, and Jean Hedrick of North Vernon; and a nephew, Harold Robertson of Indianapolis.
