Last Rites Conducted For R. J. Rochner

Funeral services were conducted this afternoon for Ralph J. Rochner, 52, Brownstown, from the Brownstown Christian Church after a preliminary service at the Zaleski Funeral Home with the Rev. F. E. Pedersen conducting last rites. Burial was in Fairview Cemetery.

Mr. Rochner died suddenly at the home of a friend near Brownstown late Friday night of a heart ailment.

Mr. Rochner was born in Brownstown May 23, 1900, the son of Louis J. Rochner and Rosa Katherine Krantz, both deceased. In 1923 he was married to Beatrice Dobbins, who survives. He was a veteran of World War II and a member of the Brownstown Christian Church.

Survivors include three sons, George Louis Rochner and Ralph Rochner, Jr., Brownstown; and Floyd Rochner, Louisville; two sisters, Mrs. William Green and Mrs. Ezra Young, Brownstown; and one brother, William E. Rochner, Brownstown.
