Comment:

Faye Elizabeth "Beth" Rudolph, 41, of Brownstown, passed away at 7:29 a.m. Friday, Oct. 25, 2013, at her residence. She had been ill for several months.

Born March 5, 1972, in Clearwater, Fla., she was the daughter of Rollie Rogers, who survives in Medora, and Mary Nelson Rogers, who preceded her in death.

Faye was a member of Brownstown Christian Church. She was a homemaker and an industrial waste sales coordinator. She was a 1990 graduate of Seymour High School and a 2001 graduate of Oakland City College with an associate's degree in business management. She loved quilting, cooking, flower gardens, fishing and being outdoors. Survivors include sons, Kyle Christopher Strong of Crothersville and Samuel Rollie Morrow of Brownstown; brothers, Luke Rogers of Seymour, Mark Rogers of Spencer and Guy Rogers of Idaho; a sister, Deborah Rogers of Tennessee; and one grandson, Brice Strong.

A funeral service will be conducted at 11 a.m. Wednesday at Zabel Funeral Home, Brownstown, with Pastor Doug Pogue officiating. Burial will take place in Fairview Cemetery, Brownstown.

Visitation will be from 9 a.m. until time of service Wednesday at the funeral home.

Memorial contributions may be made to the funeral home to help with funeral expenses.
