Russell — Mrs. Estella Robertson Russell, age 62, passed away at her home in Brownstown Saturday night at 11:10 o'clock following a several months' illness of a complication of diseases.

Mrs. Russell was a life-long resident of Jackson county. She was born in Hamilton township December 1, 1871, the daughter of John and Jeanette Isaacs Robertson. On January 8, 1891, she was married in Brownstown to John W. Russell, who served as marshal of Brownstown for a number of years.

She was essentially a home woman and made her home a shrine for her husband, children and grandchildren. She was an obliging neighbor and well liked by all who knew her. She was a member of the Christian church.

Funeral services were conducted at the Christian church Tuesday afternoon in charge of the Rev. E. E. Pedicord. Burial in Fairview cemetery.

Surviving besides the husband are three sons and one daughter, John Jr., and Miss Jeanette Russell, both at home; Charles Russell, of Indianapolis; Louis Russell, of Brownstown; four grandchildren and one brother, Will J. Robertson, of Filer, Idaho.
