James L. Russell

Oct. 21, 1923 – April 11, 2011

James L. Russell, 88, Seymour, passed away Wednesday, April 11, 2012, at his residence.

Mr. Russell was a member of Immanuel Lutheran Church. He retired in 1985 from Arvin Industries after 30 years of service and from Cummins after five years of service. He served in the U.S. Navy during World War II from 1942 to 1946 in the South Pacific aboard the U.S.S. Tomahawk as an EM2C. He was a member of Veterans of Foreign Wars Post 1925. He was an avid fisherman and especially enjoyed time spent fishing with his son and grandchildren. Watching ball-games was also a favorite pastime.

Born Oct. 21, 1923, in Brownstown, he was the son of Louis and Bertie Hurley Russell.

Survivors include his wife, Norma Tape Russell, whom he married on June 28, 1947. They would have celebrated their 65th wedding anniversary this year.

Other survivors include his son, Mike

(Carol) Russell; his daughter,

Brenda (Rand) Brooks; three grandchildren, Ryan Brooks, Erin (Jose') Villarreal and Meghan Brooks (fiance', Robert O'Flynn); sister, Mary Winklepleck; brother, Joe (Martha) Russell; and several nieces and nephews.

He was preceded in death by his parents and sister, Lois Dalton.

The Rev. Ralph Blomenberg will conduct funeral services at 11 a.m. Monday at Voss Chapel, Seymour. Burial will follow at Fairview Cemetery, Brownstown.

Friends may call from 2 p.m. to 4 p.m. Sunday and from 10 a.m. until time of service Monday at the funeral home.

In lieu of flowers, the family asks that memorial donations be made to Immanuel Lutheran Church or Hospice of Schneck Medical Center.
