Miss Jeanette Russell Dies, Rites Thursday

Miss Jeanette Russell died shortly after 10:30 o'clock Tuesday morning at the Rose Lawn Nursing Home in Seymour where she had been a patient for more than a year. In failing health for the past two and one-half years, she had been seriously ill for the past several days.

A native of Hamilton township, Miss Russell, was born October 5, 1891, the daughter of the late John W. and Estella Robertson Russell. She had spent all of her life in Brownstown and community and was widely known through her work with the Indiana Telephone Corporation as she had been an operator in the Brownstown exchange for more than thirty years and was chief operator here for twelve years.

Her courtesy at the switch board won her many friends throughout the entire community and all of Brownstown was grieved to learn of her death.

Cheerful of disposition, kind, friendly and sincere, Miss Russell's friends throughout Brownstown and the entire county were legion.

She was a member of the Brownstown Christian Church and for a number of years was affiliated with Lucullus Temple, Pythian Sisters, Brownstown Chapter, Order of Eastern Star and the Eastern Star Club in Seymour.

Surviving are two brother, J. Louis Russell, of Brownstown, and John R. Russell, of Indianapolis; three nieces, Mrs. Lois Dalton, of Indianapolis, Miss Mary Russell, of Brownstown, and Miss Jayne Russell, of Indianapolis; and two nephews, James Russell Jr. and Joseph W. Russell, a resident of Marion.

Funeral services will be held at 2 o'clock Thursday afternoon from the Winklepleck Funeral Home here in charge of Gene Duin, Brownstown Christian Church pastor. Interment will be in Fairview Cemetery.

Friends may call at the Funeral Home at any time.
