J. Louis Russell Rites Held Sunday Afternoon

Funeral rites for J. Louis Russell, substitute rural mail carrier out of the Brownstown post office, were held Sunday afternoon from the Winklepleck Funeral Home in charge of Gene Dulin, Christian Church pastor. Interment was in Fairview Cemetery.

Mr. Russell, who had been in failing health for some time, died early Friday morning at the family residence in Brownstown.

A native of Jackson county, he was born June 15, 1895, the son of the late John W. Russell, former Brownstown town marshal, and Estella Robertson Russell, also deceased.

He was married September 24, 1921 at Jeffersonville, to Bertie Hurley, who survives.

Mr. Russell was a veteran of World War I, was a member of Washington Lodge No. 13, Free and Accepted Masons, of Brownstown, of the Scottish Rite, of Indianapolis, and the Brownstown Christian Church.

Surviving in addition to the widow are two sons, James Russell, of Brownstown, and Joe Russell, of Marion, and a daughter, Miss Mary Russell, Brownstown beautician. A brother, John Russell, of Indianapolis, and five grandchildren also survive.
