Mrs. C. H. Rust Dies—Rites Set

Mrs. Ida Rust, 69, 308 North Wolcott, Indianapolis, wife of Charles H. Rust, died Thursday night at St. Vincent's Hospital, Indianapolis. She had been in failing health since May and had been seriously ill for about six weeks. She had been in the hospital for about two weeks.

Funeral services for Mrs. Rust, a well known former resident of Seymour and Jackson county, will be conducted at 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon from the Voss Mortuary with the Rev. Webster Richer, retired Baptist minister of Indianapolis, in charge. Burial in Fairview Cemetery, Brownstown.

Friends may call at the Voss Mortuary after 4 o'clock Saturday afternoon.

Mrs. Rust was born December 28, 1885, at Caldwell, Ohio, the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. William Lanham. After their death, she was reared in the home of her uncle, Dr. and Mrs. Jesse Lannam, of Franklin. She was a graduate of Franklin College and was married in September, 1911, at Franklin to Charles H. Rust, who survives. They farmed the Rust farm in Hamilton township from the time of their marriage until 1935, with the exception of six years when they lived on a farm in Johnson county. They moved to Seymour in 1935 and lived here until moving to Indianapolis in 1944.

Mrs. Rust was a practical nurse in Seymour for several years. She was a member of the Franklin Presbyterian Church, but while living in this county she was active in the Cortland church, playing the organ and singing with a quartet. She also was a past president of the Cortland Home Economics Club. Since living in Indianapolis, she had worked with the gross income tax division and was a receptionist for the Indiana Union Mutual Insurance Company, Indianapolis, when she became ill. A host of friends in Seymour and throughout Jackson county mourns her death.

Besides the husband, she is survived by four children: Miss Ruth Rust, at home in Indianapolis, Philip Rust, of Indianapolis, and twin sons, James, of Seattle, Wash., and Samuel, of Honolulu. A brother, Sam Lanham, of Franklin and a sister, Blanche Stevens, of Pennsylvania, and a number of grandchildren also survive.
