Mrs. Sanford Is Called By Death

Dies At Home of Daughter, Mrs. W. P. Stall. At Brownstown Early Today.

Mrs. Martha Jane Sanford, age seventy-four, mother of Mrs. Willis P. Stall, of Brownstown, died at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Stall at 7:45 o'clock this morning. She had been ill since 1924 with a complication of diseases.

Funeral services will be conducted at 2 o'clock Tuesday afternoon from the Stall residence with the Rev. J. C. Reynolds, of Brownstown, in charge. Burial in Brownstown Cemetery.

Mrs. Sanford was born on April 1, 1862, near Ladoga, Ind., the youngest daughter of Zachariah and Catherine Mahorney. She was married on April 30, 1891 to W. J. Sanford, a teacher at New Ross, Ind. She joined the Presbyterian Church at Ladoga when she was sixteen years of age and was graduated from Ladoga school and from State Normal College at Terre Haute. She also taught in the Indiana State Normal at Ladoga and taught school at various places from the time she was sixteen until she was sixty-two years of age. She was known as Mrs. Jennie Sanford and has a host of friends who mourn her death.

Mrs. Sanford was the mother of two children, one of whom died in infancy. She is survived by the daughter, Mrs. Stall; four grandsons; two brothers, Perry and Dan Mahorney, both of Ladoga and a sister, Mrs. Mary Rodman, of Ladoga.
