Comment: Georgia S. Riley buried with Mr. Scanlan

SCANLAN—The remains of John Scanlan, who died at his home at Brookville Wednesday, of diabetes, were brought here Friday afternoon and taken direct to Fairview cemetery for burial. For several years he was employed at the Ewing Paper Mill. He is survived by his widow, who was formerly Miss Maude Samples, of this place, and three children. The family have the sympathy of many Brownstown friends in their bereavement.
