MOTHER OF COUNTY CLERK DIES AT PLEASANT GROVE

Mrs. John Schornick Expires Following Long Illness—Funeral to Be Held Thursday.

Mrs. Mary Ann Schornick, aged sixty-three years, wife of John Schornick, died Tuesday at her home near Pleasant Grove, following an illness of several years with dropsy of the heart. Her condition became critical a few days ago.

Mrs. Schornick was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Cornett and was born near Houston. When she was a young girl her parents moved to the Pleasant Grove neighborhood where she spent her life. She was united in marriage to Mr. Schornick January 2, 1881. To them were born five children a son and daughter having died early in life. Surviving are three sons, Frank L., clerk of the Jackson circuit court; Jabe C. of Wabash, and Herschell, of Freetown. She also leaves six grandchildren.

Mrs. Schornick was a member of the Surprise Methodist church, having joined when she was a young girl. She was a devoted member of the church and in later years attended the church at Pleasant Grove, which was closer to her home. Her first interest in life was her family and it was for the welfare and happiness of her husband and children that she labored.

The funeral will be held Thursday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock from the Pleasant Grove M. E. church, conducted by the Rev. William DeHart, pastor. Burial in the cemetery at Brownstown.

Zabe C. Schornick, a son, recently underwent a serious operation and is not able to make the trip from Wabash to Pleasant Grove for the funeral.
