Former Local Resident George H. Schwartz, Dies —Buried Here Today

George H. Schwartz, a former Brownstown resident, died at the Major Hospital, Shelbyville, Monday morning about four o'clock after an illness of almost ten years.

Funeral services were conducted from the Ewing Mortuary, Shelbyville, Wednesday, with burial following in Fairview Cemetery, Brownstown. In charge of the last rites was the Rev. James Horner, of Shelbyville.

Mr. Schwartz was born in Brownstown March 26, 1878, the son of the late Charles F. and Theresa Henry Schwartz. He was married twice, first to Nellie Jackson, on March 5, 1902, and second to Amelia E. Sandman on May 29, 1941. The first wife passed away in January, 1935.

Besides the widow, he is survived by one daughter, Mrs. Gertrude Brown, of Shelbyville, and one son, Roy Schwartz, Columbus R8. Also surviving are six grandchildren, 16 great-grandchildren and one brother, David Schwartz, of Kalispell, Montana.

The deceased was a member of the Brownstown Christian Church and of the Modern Woodman lodge. He was a carpenter before his retirement several years ago. He had also lived in Anderson as well as Brownstown and Shelbyville.
