Fatally Stricken Visiting Son

Mrs. George Schwartz, Aged 49,
Expires After Illness Of Only a Few Hours.

Mrs. George Schwartz, of Brownstown, was fatally stricken Sunday afternoon while she and her husband were visiting at the home of their son Roy and family near Brownstown.

At the time she was stricken she was standing in a doorway with her grandchild in her arms. Suddenly she turned to her daughter-in-law and said "Take the baby," and sank to the floor. She was carried to bed in an unconscious condition and remained so until her death at 12:40 that night. She had been in failing health for a number of years but her condition was not regarded serious. Aside from about ten years residence in Anderson, she had spent her life in Jackson county.

Mrs. Schwartz was one of eight children born to Mr. and Mrs. John Jackson and was born in Owen township July 15, 1885. She was united in marriage to George Schwartz March 5, 1902, and to their union were born two children, Mrs. Gertrude Brown, of Anderson, and Roy Schwartz, of Brownstown.

She was a loving and devoted mother and companion and a good neighbor. She was an industrious woman, and always working when her health permitted. She was a member of the Brownstown Christian church.

Besides the husband and children she leaves her mother, three sisters, Mrs. Phoebe Smith, of Medora; Mrs. Philean Callahan, of Norman; Mrs. Josephine Mitchell, of Anderson; three brothers, Liva, of Medora; Thornton and Ray Jackson, both of Lansing, Michigan; three grandchildren and a host of other relatives and friends.

Funeral services were conducted by Rev. E. E. Pedicord at the Christian church this afternoon at 2 o'clock. Burial in Fairview cemetery.
