Edward R. Schwein Retired Saw Mill Owner, Succumbs

Funeral rites were held Sunday afternoon at the Johnson Funeral Home, Vallonia, for Edward R. Schwein, well-known Vallonia resident, who for many years, prior to his retirement, owned and operated a saw mill and, in partnership with his brother, Frank Schwein, a threshing machine.

Ill for several years, and seriously ill the past nine days, Mr. Schwein died Friday at his home.

A native of Brownstown, he was born July 5, 1883, a son of the late George and Mary C. Fritz Schwein.

He was married on March 19, 1930, at Salem, to Clarissa Fulk, who survives.

Also surviving are two sons, Richard D. Schwein, of Salem, and Robert Schwein, at home; a daughter, Mrs. Lois Autry, of Brownstown; a brother, Paul D. Schwein, of Vallonia, and three sisters, Mrs. Minnie Woodmansee, of Brownstown, Mrs. Edith Williams, Fairland, and Mrs. Gladys Anthony, Greenwood.

Three brothers and a sister are deceased.

Mrs. Schwein attended the Brownstown Presbyterian Church.

John Sighting, pastor of the Vallonia Christian Church, was in charge of the funeral rites. Burial was in Fairview Cemetery in Brownstown.
