Rites For William B. Schwein Are Held

Funeral services for William Bryan Schwein, 63, of Brownstown, were conducted this afternoon at 2 o'clock from the Winklepleck Funeral Home, Brownstown, with the Rev. Edsel Granger, pastor of the Brownstown Presbyterian Church, in charge. Burial was in Fairview Cemetery, Brownstown.

Military rites were conducted by the Brownstown American Legion post.

Mr. Schwein was found dead, hanging by his neck tie attached to a piece of furniture. Investigating were Sheriff Lester E. Greathouse, Deputy Sheriff Harvey Green and Dr. L. E. Shaver, county coroner.

Mr. Schwein, a resident of Jackson County most of his life, died about 8:40 a. m. Saturday at his home after being in failing health for the last four years.

A veteran of World War I, he was a member of the Brownstown American Legion post and a member of the Seymour Disabled American Veterans. Mr. Schwein was a gardner by occupation from which he was retired.

He was born September 12, 1896, at Brownstown, son of the late Frank and Lizzie Sommers Schwein. At Indianapolis, he married the former Jean Tritch.

Survivors include a step-daughter, Mrs. Norma Rascoe, of Indianapolis; three brothers: Alfred Schwein, of Brownstown; Lawrence Schwein, of Bucyrus, O., and Ralph Schwein, of Seymour, and two sisters, Mrs. Marian Vinson, of Brownstown, and Mrs. Anne Gerhart, of Bucyrus. One sister preceded Mr. Schwein in death.
