John Maloy Seaman, 80, Expires at Residence

John Maloy Seaman, 80, a resident of Jackson county for the past 25 years, died at the home, 918 West Laurel street, early this morning. He had been ill for the past 10 years.

Mr. Seaman was a retired conductor on the Big Four Railroad at Indianapolis. He had retired after serving the railroad for 37 years. During his residence here, he made many friends who mourn his passing.

Mr. Seaman was born March 6, 1868, in Jeffersonville, the son of the late John and Mary Maloy Seaman. He was married November 2, 1914, in Indianapolis, to Nettie Coombs, who survives. He was a member of the Christian Church.

Besides the widow, he is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Hazel Stewart and a son, Dan Seaman, both of Indianapolis; two sisters, Mrs. Grace Cottingham and Mrs. Minnie Hamilton, both of Indianapolis, two grandchildren and four great grandchildren. Two brothers and four sisters preceded him in death.

Funeral services will be conducted at 10 o'clock Friday morning from the Voss Mortuary with the Rev. George L. Florence, pastor of the Central Christian Church, in charge. Burial in Fairview Cemetery, Brownstown.

Friends may call at the Voss Mortuary after 7 o'clock tonight.
