Andrew Sharon Dies Today, Rites Saturday

Andrew "Shorty" P. Sharon, 95, 708 South Vine street, died at 7:10 a. m. today in his home after an illness of about three weeks.

He served with the Royal Canadian Army, was a member of the Veterans of Foreign Wars in Seymour, and had been employed as a machinist in Detroit, Mich.

Mr. Sharon was born March 17, 1880, in Wallaceburg, Ontario, Canada, to the late John and Mary Churcott Sharon, and had lived in Jackson County since 1932. On December 10, 1913, in Brownstown, he married Elizabeth L. Weathers Lahrman, who preceded him in death on November 5, 1945.

Survivors include one daughter, Mrs. John (Margaret) Fields, of Seymour; one stepdaughter, Mrs. Ethel Tull, of Seymour; five stepgrandchildren and nine stepgreat-grandchildren. Three brothers and two sisters preceded him in death.

Funeral services will be conducted at 1:30 p. m. Saturday from the Burkholder Chapel with the Rev. William Claykamp, pastor of the Nazarene Church in Columbus, officiating. Burial will be in the Fairview Cemetery, Brownstown.

Friends may call after 3 p. m. Friday at the Burkholder Funeral Home.
