Ed Shelton, 44, Night Watchman at Vallonia, Expires in Presence of Wife.

Edward Ellsworth Shelton, aged 44, died suddenly Thursday morning about 7:30 o'clock at his home about half way between Brownstown and Vallonia. He had been serving as night watchman for the merchants of Vallonia and returning home from his night duty had finished his breakfast. He was talking to his wife, when she noticed a peculiar look on his face and asked him if he was feeling bad to which he replied yes and expired in a few moments. However, he had been in failing health for more than a year.

Deceased was a son of Riley and Mary Shelton and was born in Brownstown April 25, 1885, and died Aug. 1, 1929, making his age at the time of his death, 44 years, 3 months and 7 days.

On October 7, 1906, he was married to Miss Anna Barkman. To their union were born five children, two of whom, Thomas Riley and Lloyd preceded him in death.

Besides his wife he leaves one daughter, Miss Henrietta, age 19, of Indianapolis; two sons, Frank, age 16, and Orville, age 9, both at home.
