Mead Shelton, 51, Dies Suddenly

Heart Attack Of Vallonia Man Fatal As He Was Visiting Relatives In The Gossman School Neighborhood Sunday Afternoon — Other Deaths.

Mead Shelton, age 51, of Vallonia, died suddenly Sunday afternoon about 4 o'clock of a heart attack at the home of his brother-in-law, Earl England, in the Gossman school neighborhood.

Mr. Shelton was sitting on the lawn talking when he suddenly fell forward on his face dead. He had been taking treatments for the past five years for heart trouble.

Funeral services were held at the Baptist church in Brownstown Tuesday afternoon with the Rev. Frank Templin, pastor of the Methodist church, in charge. Burial in Fairview cemetery.

Deceased was a life-long resident of Jackson county. He was born in Brownstown on December 21, 1892, the son of Ed and Effie Miller Shelton, both deceased. On October 5, 1932, he was married to Anna Bella England, who survives. He was a farmer by occupation but gave up farming several months ago and moved to Vallonia. He was well known and leaves many friends to mourn his death.

Besides the widow he is survived by one daughter, Reva June, at home; two brothers, Forrest Shelton, of Brownstown township; Price Shelton, of Louisville, and four sisters, Mrs. Goldie Banks, Mrs. Blanche Boley both of Brownstown; Mrs. Edna Aufenberg, of Seymour and Mrs. Bernice Reedy of Honeytown.
