Robert Clyde Shelton rites Friday

Robert Clyde Shelton, 77, of Brownstown and formerly of Indianapolis died at 7:15 a.m. Tuesday, Aug. 2, 1994, at Hoosier Christian Village, Brownstown, after being ill for many years.

Shelton was a member of Seymour Christ Temple and had been a resident of Hoosier Christian Village for three years.

The veteran of World War II served in the U.S. Army and retired in 1975 from the Terminal Transport Co., Indianapolis, where he worked on the freight dock.

Born Aug. 20, 1916, in Jackson County, he was the son of Clyde Andrew Shelton and Rozella Fleenor. On Aug. 28, 1948, in Indianapolis, he married Mary Ellen Carter, and she survives.

Other survivors include five daughters, Carolyn Faye Dick, Nola Marie Klimczewski and Brenda Rose Wheeler, all of Brownstown; Roberta Ann Jaynes, Cortland; and Sheila Dianne Bennett, Seymour; two sons, Robert Michael Shelton, Brownstown; and David Clyde Shelton, Vallonia; two brothers, Edward Shelton, Indianapolis, and Warren Shelton, Brownstown; 12 grandchildren; 2 step-grandchildren; 3 great-grandchildren and a step-great-grandson.

He was preceded in death by three brothers and four sisters.

The Rev. Cecil Bowling will conduct services at 1 p.m. Friday at Winklepeck-Weesner Funeral Home, Brownstown, with burial to follow at Fairview Cemetery, Brownstown, with military rites.

Friends may call from 4 p.m. to 8 p.m. Thursday and from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. Friday at the funeral home. Memorial contributions may be given to the Alzheimer's Association or Hoosier Christian Village Auxiliary.
