MRS. FANNIE SHEPARD DIES AT BROWNSTOWN

Widow of Late Allen A. Shepard
—Funeral Thursday P. M. From Methodist Church.

Mrs. Fannie Shepard, widow of the late Allen A. Shepard, died this morning at 7:30 o'clock at the home at Brownstown after an extended illness.

Mrs. Shepard was born in Driftwood township May 12, 1849, being over 75 years of age. She was a daughter of Peter Stacey Holmes, a Driftwood township pioneer. She was married to Allen A. Shepard March 30, 1868. Soon after their marriage they moved to Kansas where they resided for seven years and then returned to Jackson county and took up their residence in Cortland, moving to Brownstown in 1887, where she had since lived. Mr. Shepard died August 24, 1918, at Brownstown. She was a member of the Methodist church at Brownstown and was held in high esteem by all who knew her, as a true Christian character and lovable neighbor. In all of her active life she was devoted to her church and gave her services loyally. Her home was that of a devout Christian.

Surviving are two daughters, Miss Caddie at home, Mrs. A. J. Brodhecker, Brownstown, and a son, Elmer O. Shepard, Brownstown, and two half sisters, Mrs. Alice Hopewell and Mrs. Elizabeth Abel, both of Seymour.

The funeral will be held Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the Brownstown M. E. church, Rev. T. J. Anthony in charge. Burial in Fairview cemetery at Brownstown.
