Margaret A. "Peg" Shields

Margaret A. "Peg" Shields, 90, of Richmond, died Wednesday, Nov. 12, at Friends Fellowship Community.

She retired as a registered dietitian working as a consulting dietitian for Friends Fellowship Community and Head Start. She co-owned Trinity Gifts and Books three years. She was a member of the Wayne County Medical Auxiliary, Indiana Dietetic Association and American Dietetic Association, Delta Delta Delta Sorority Alumnae Association, Board of Directors of Richmond Day Nursery, Daughters of Isabella, Forest Hills Country Club, and she volunteered at Birthright and Adult Day Care.

She was born July 26, 1913, in Perth, Kan., a daughter of John D. and Hanora Burns Murphy. She married Thomas S. Shields, M.D., and he died in 1974.

Survivors include a son, Thomas J. (Christine H.) Shields; a daughter, Susan A. (David L.) Peterson of North Port, Maine; grandchildren, Scott Shields, Elizabeth Shields, Kathleen Shields, David Peterson, Rick Peterson, and Margaret Peterson; great-grandchildren, Tyler Struckman, Samuel Struckman, Nyle Peterson, Marley Peterson, and Lily Shields; and several nieces and nephews.

She was also preceded in death by several brothers and sisters.

Liturgies of Christian Burial will be conducted at 10 a.m. today, Monday, Nov. 17, at St. Mary's Catholic Church with Rev. Todd Riebe officiating. Burial will be at Fairview Cemetery, Brownstown, at 2 p.m. Tuesday, Nov. 18, with Father John Hall officiating. Stegall-Berheide-Orr Funeral Home, Richmond, is in charge of arrangements. Memorials may be given to Birthright 303 South Sixth St., Richmond, Ind. 47374, St. Mary's Church, or Catholic Library and Resource Center in care of Richmond Catholic Office, 204 S. Sixth St., Richmond. E-mail condolences may be sent to <cbocares@aol.com>.
