L. Shipley, 61, B'town, Expires

Lee Edward Shipley, 61, 1009 West Bridge street, Brownstown, a lifelong resident of Jackson County, died at 11:30 a. m. Thursday at Schneck Memorial Hospital, where he had been admitted the previous day. Although he had been in failing health for the last six months, his death was sudden and unexpected, as he had taught his Sunday School class, the Home Builders Class, at the Brownstown Baptist Church last Sunday.

Mr. Shipley was a deacon of Brownstown Baptist Church and had been a Sunday School teacher of the church for 15 years. He was also a member of Washington Lodge No. 13, Free and Accepted Masons, at Brownstown. He had been employed with Cummins Engine Company, Columbus, since 1950.

Born April 4, 1907, in this county, the son of the late William and Clara McKain Shipley, Mr. Shipley was married December 22, 1930, in Jeffersonville, to Ruth Massena, who survives.

Other survivors include four children, Donald Shipley, of Columbus, Jack Shipley and Mrs. Harold (Alice) Zike, both of this city, and Mrs. Margaret Ann Jones, of Springfield, Mo.; four brothers, Robert Shipley, of Indianapolis, Russell Shipley, of Salem, Melvin Shipley, of Columbia, S. C., and Stanley Shipley, of Oceanside, Calif.; and two sisters, Mrs. Mary Kasting, of Brownstown, and Mrs. Betty Ferguson, of Tompkinsville, Ky. Fourteen grandchildren also survive.

Funeral services will be conducted at 2 p. m. Saturday from the Brownstown Baptist Church, with the Rev. Ernest Anderson, pastor, officiating. Burial in Fairview Cemetery, Brownstown.

Friends may call at the Winklepleck - Weesner Funeral Home, in Brownstown until 1 p. m. Saturday, after which they may call at the church.
