Comment:

Warren Shutts Dead.

Warren Shutts, age twenty-four, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Shutts, of Brownstown, died Friday morning of tuberculosis. For the past three months he was at the Rockville sanitarium. His father was called there several days ago because of his condition. The young man was graduated from the Brownstown high school in 1909. He was employed as a stenographer until his health compelled him to give up his work. He spent some time in the west, but failed to improve. The funeral services will be held Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, conducted by Rev. E. F. Schneider. He was a member of the Red Men's lodge.
