Florin Smith services Saturday

Florin D. Smith, 88, of Medora died at 2:35 p.m. Wednesday at Bedford Medical Center. He had been ill a week.

A retired farmer, he was a supervisor at Morgan Packing Co. for 12 years and had worked 17 years at a steel mill in Gary.

A special deputy under Sheriff Joe Gray, he was an associate member of Indiana Sheriffs Association and the Indiana State Police Alliance.

Born Nov. 22, 1904, in Williamsport, he was a son of William and Lula Morrison Smith. He married Irene Reed on April 15, 1948, in Sullivan County, and she survives.

Other survivors include two daughters, Nellie M. White, Freetown; and Beulah Smith, Russiaville; a sister, Naomi Hill, Sellersburg; five grandchildren; nine great-grandchildren; and two great-great-grandchildren.

He is preceded in death by a son, a daughter, a brother and a sister.

Services will be conducted at 10 a.m. Saturday at Winklepleck-Weesner Funeral Home in Brownstown. Arnold Cutter will officiate. Burial will be in Vevay Cemetery in Vevay.

Friends may call from 3 p.m. to 8 p.m. Friday and after 9 a.m. Saturday. Memorials may be made to donor's choice.
