

George W. Snyder

Occupant Name: George W. Snyder

Location: Section Q, Lot 3

Date of Birth: 12/12/1883

Date of Death: 10/19/1920

Date of Burial: 10/22/1920

Veteran: No

Lot Owner: W. Snyder

Multiple Occupants: No

Comment:

. Snyder—George Snyder, formerly of this place, died at his home at Ft. Thomas, Ky., Tuesday morning, October 19, 1920, aged 34 years, 10 months, and 8 days. He had been in declining health since last spring, following an attack of the flu. Later physicians said that he was suffering from a cancer, for which he underwent treatment. He spent some weeks here last summer in the hopes of regaining his health, but did not make any permanent improvement, and returned to Ft. Thomas about two months ago.

The remains were brought here at noon today and taken to the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alex Snyder, at Slygo, where funeral services, under auspices of Washington Lodge, No. 13, F. and A. M., will be held Thursday afternoon at two o'clock. Rev. F. M. Moore pastor of the Presbyterian church, officiating, followed by interment in Fairview cemetery.

Deceased was born in Brownstown township, December 12, 1885, at the Slygo homestead, about a mile and a half southeast of Brownstown. He attended the Brownstown schools, graduating in 1905, after which he took a mechanical course at Purdue University, graduating therefrom in 1911.

For a number of years past he has been employed as a traveling salesman for the Davison Tool and Manufacturing Company, of New York, and stood next to the highest as one of their most capable salesmen.

He was united in marriage December 12, 1920, to Miss Blanche Reynolds, who with one daughter, Alice, survive him. He also leaves his parents, four brothers and two sisters, viz: Will and John, of Memphis, Tenn., Ed. of Franklin, Howard, Pearl and Blanche, of this place.

At an early age he united with the Brownstown Presbyterian church, where he has since retained his membership. He was a man of a splendid moral character, and stood high in the estimation of all who knew him.

