Thurman Sparks

Thurman I. "T.I." Sparks, 66, Monroeville, Ala., former plant manager of the Arvin Industries plant at Seymour, died at Baptist East Hospital in Louisville, Ky., Friday night, Oct. 29.

Sparks had been ill since June.

Funeral was at 2 p.m. Tuesday, Nov. 2, at the Voss Funeral Home in Seymour where the Rev. O. Tarrell Thompson officiated. Burial was at Fairview Cemetery at Brownstown.

Sparks was a member of the First United Methodist Church at Monroeville and a former member of the Rotary, Lions and Elks clubs in Seymour. He also was a member of a Masonic lodge and Scottish Rite.

Sparks retired from Arvin Industries in July, 1981.

Born June 10, 1916, in Ketchikan, Alaska, he was a son of the late Ira Culver and Verna Geiselman Sparks. He moved to Jackson County in 1947 and lived here until 1963. He returned to the county in 1965 and moved to Alabama in 1973.

He married the former Hilma Klauss on April 12, 1941, in Leland, Miss., and she survives.

Also surviving are three children, Mrs. Ronald (Barbara) Otte of Brownstown Rt. 1, Craig L. Sparks of Louisville, and Brian C. Sparks of St. Louis, Mo.; a brother, Donald E. Sparks of Lexington, Ky.; and seven grandchildren.
