Mrs. Lydia Speiker Dies After Illness

Mrs. Lydia Speiker, 43, a life-long resident of Jackson county, died late Thursday afternoon at the Shady Lawn Sanitarium, near Columbus. She had been ill for the past two and one-half years.

Mrs. Speiker, who lived at 707 South Chestnut street, was a native of Wegan and was the daughter of the late John and Louise Stuckwisch Haman. She spent all of her life in this county and was married October 20, 1928, at Wegan, to Elmer B. Speiker, who survives. She was a member of the Wegan Lutheran Church and enjoyed the acquaintance and esteem of a host of friends who mourn her death.

Besides the husband, she is survived by two sisters, Mrs. Albert Wischmeier, of Sauers and Miss Clara Haman, of Chicago.

Funeral services will be conducted Monday but definite arrangements will be announced later.

Friends may call at the Zabel Funeral Home at Brownstown.
