William L. Spray

Jan. 25, 1919-July 22, 1995

William L. Spray, 76, of Medora died at 4:27 a.m. Saturday, July 22, 1995, in the emergency room at Memorial Hospital in Seymour.

Mr. Spray retired as a teacher, coach and administrator from the Jackson County schools, where he served for over 40 years. He was a member of the Medora Lodge Free and Accepted Masons, Medora United Methodist Church and active in the National Farmers Organization.

Born Jan. 25, 1919, in Lawrence County, he was a son of Samuel F. and Carrie Syvia Speer Spray. On Dec. 14, 1941, in Palmyra, he married Jessie Marian Day Spray, and she survives.

Other survivors include three sons, William L. Spray Jr. and Samuel J. Spray, both of Medora; and George F. Spray, Seymour; two daughters, Mary Lea St. Clair, Lanesville; and Anne J. Kinney, Milwaukee, Wis.; a sister, Wilma Scharbrough, Brownstown; and 10 grandchildren.

The Rev. Howard Wardrip will conduct services at 2 p.m. Tuesday at Hague Funeral Home, Medora, with burial to follow in Fairview Cemetery, Brownstown.

Friends may call from 3 p.m. to 9 p.m. today and from 9 a.m. until time of service Tuesday at the funeral home. Memorial contributions may be given to the Medora United Methodist Church or donor's choice.
