Bee T. Spurgeon

Bee T. Spurgeon, 100, Brownstown, died a 1 a.m. Thursday, Feb. 27, at Hoosier Christian Village in Brownstown. He had been ill for six months.

He was a member of the Honeytown Christian Church, where he was an elder, and was a farmer. He was formerly a school teacher for one year at Maumee and was a director of Jackson County REMC for 33 years. He was foreman of the Civilian Conservation Corps Camp at Jackson State Forest and Starve Hollow Lake at Vallonia, was director of Muscatatuck National Farm Loan Association, and was affiliated with the ASCS office in Brownstown at one time.

He was born Aug. 14, 1896 in Freetown to the late John Wesley and Laura White Spurgeon. He married the former Hazel Taylor on Sept. 3, 1918 in Jeffersonville, and she preceded him in death on Aug. 24, 1993.

Survivors include one daughter, Norma Hubbard, Seymour; one grandson, Mike Spurgeon, Brownstown; two great-granddaughters, Rebecca and Allison Spurgeon, and one sister, Mrs. Bruce (Myrtle) DeLong, Milton, Pa.

He was preceded in death by one son, Raymond Spurgeon; five brothers, and one sister.

Funeral services were conducted at 10:30 a.m. Saturday, March 1, at Winklepleck-Weesner Funeral Home in Brownstown with Morris Tippin and Rev. Kris Small officiating. Burial was in Fairview Cemetery, Brownstown.

Memorials may be made to the Honeytown Christian Church or Hoosier Christian Village Auxiliary.
